A LETTER FROM OUR GENERAL MANAGER

Dear Valued Families and Wedding Couples, It is truly an honor to welcome you to Marriott Chicago Northwest, and to be considered as the setting for one of life's most meaningful celebrations. South Asian weddings are more than events — they are vibrant, multi-day traditions filled with love, culture, family, and unforgettable moments. As someone of South Asian heritage, I understand the deep importance of these celebrations and the care that goes into every detail.

As a second-generation hotelier with over two decades of experience in the hospitality industry, I take great pride in ensuring that every wedding hosted at our hotel is treated with the highest level of attention, respect, and dedication. Your celebration is not simply another date on our calendar — it is a milestone that deserves personalized care, thoughtful planning, and exceptional service.

From your first tour and planning meetings to the final farewell brunch, I want you to know that I am personally committed to making your wedding weekend a priority. I will remain available throughout the process, and I take great pride in overseeing our capable and experienced team to ensure every ceremony, gathering, and celebration is executed seamlessly.

On behalf of our entire Marriott Chicago Northwest family, we look forward to serving you and creating an experience that is joyful, stress-free, and truly unforgettable for you and your guests.

Warmest regards,

Kartik Shandil
General Manager
